

Next.....

I spend plenty of time in my house in one room....an office...

It's a good little space and while I'm in here the kids can have the living room to watch their shows.....

While Ev was alive I spent time in here also, but most of the time we lay around on the sofa watching TV, cuddling Charlotte....in those days....the "good" days, I hung pictures in this room.....a drawing of Cobras a friend bought me, one I picked up at Canadian Tire too...the old cobra, just like the one I built....

Other pictures have always hung in here too....photos of Ev and I, one of just her....one of my favorites of her....looking at me....searching for something in me.....

This morning I hung our family photo in here that was at the shop and I wondered if this will become a good or bad space for me.....

I miss Ev a bit too much these days....I've always missed her terribly every day but now that I face new challenges in life it is magnified a bit....that her hand isn't in mine....her arm isn't around me.....

When Ev touched me it just wasn't the same as anyone else.....she touched me with a purpose I guess....it felt different.....

I really miss that.....I'm searching.....I look for her everywhere.....

It's terrible really....it shows how little I've managed to get better.....

I considered this morning if I should take these pictures down.....I wonder if at some point I have to pack Ev up into boxes....

wracking.....

I'll be back to Brockville this morning to pick up Lola, I hope to get the ladies to Calypso and La Ronde this week....We haven't missed a trip to La Ronde since Ev and I met....a summer tradition that won't end until Charlotte outgrows it.

The Quote of The Day

I can't believe that we would lie in our graves wondering if we had spent our living days well. I can't believe that we would lie in our graves dreaming of things that we might have been. Dave Matthews

I'll stop by and visit Ev today....I'll dream of digging a hole and laying down beside her.....

Babe.....I see you in every cloud....every shadow....I'm sorry I just miss you too much.....
