

If I live until I can no longer climb my stairs

It has been a while.....a good bit of time....

I've tried very hard to not do this.....

I win.

Amongst a dozen men...all hiding how they feel...I fit in wonderfully.

I've become the person I was 15 years ago.....an idiot....I know exactly who I am, what I feel....but I'm not going to let any of you see it....I'm too strong.

what a joke.
